

Frequently Asked Questions about Donation Voting

Who is eligible to vote?

Everyone who holds shares on Monday 31 July 2023 (the record date) is eligible to vote.

When does voting open?

Voting opens on Friday 1 September 2023 at 5:00pm (Sydney time).

When does voting close?

Voting will close on Friday 29 September 2023 at 5:00pm (Sydney time).

How do I vote?

Shareholders will be emailed or mailed details on how to submit their vote using our online voting form.

Am I only able to vote online?

Yes. If you are unable to vote online, we can help you to complete the online form. Please call a member of the Future Generation team on (02) 9247 9202 for assistance.

How much will Future Generation invest?

This year, Future Generation Australia (ASX: FGX) will invest $5.2 million* and Future Generation Global (ASX: FGG) will invest $5.4 million*. This will bring Future Generation's total social investment since inception to $75.9 million.

When will Future Generation make the donation payments?

Future Generation will make the donation payments in late November 2023.

Can I allocate my portion of the social investment to a not-for-profit organisation of my choice?

If you hold under one million shares, you can allocate your portion of the social investment to a Future Generation social impact partner or partners. To allocate to an organisation of your choice, you must hold over one million shares on the record date of Monday 31 July 2023. All organisations must have Deductible Gift Recipient \(DGR\) status to be eligible to receive donations.

Can I combine my Future Generation Australia and Future Generation Global holdings for voting?

Holdings cannot be combined across the Future Generation companies.

What organisations does Future Generation support?

Future Generation Australia supports 10 organisations working with children and youth at-risk: Act for Kids, Australian Children's Music Foundation, Australian Indigenous Education Foundation, Debra Australia, Diabetes Kids Fund, Giant Steps, Lighthouse Foundation, Mirabel Foundation, Raise Foundation and Youth Off The Streets.

Future Generation Global supports 14 organisations working to promote wellbeing and prevent mental ill-health among young Australians: BackTrack Youth Works, Big hART, Happy Paws Happy Hearts, Human Nature, I CAN Network, Mind Blank, Prevention United, PROJECT ROCKIT, ReachOut Australia, Smiling Mind, The Westerman Jilya Institute for Indigenous Mental Health, Wanta Aboriginal Corporation, Youth Live4Life and Youth Opportunities.

Where can I find out more about Future Generation's social impact partners?

You can find more information about our partners' exceptional work with young people on the voting page on our website.

If you have further questions about our social investments, please call (02) 9247 9202 to speak to a member of the Future Generation team or email info@futuregeninvest.com.au.

What is a standing vote?

When you submit your vote, you will have the option to create a 'standing vote' which sets an automatic selection for voting in future years. If you do so, you will still receive voting information and have the option to change your vote each year. However, it will remain the default if you do not make a new election.

What if I need help making my vote?

Please call a member of the Future Generation team on (02) 9247 9202 for assistance.

Where can I find further information on the Dividend Donation Plan (DDP)?

Frequently Asked Questions on the Dividend Donation Plan can be found on our website by clicking here.

*The social investment in 2023 is equal to 1.0% of the average monthly net tangible asset value of Future Generation Australia and Future Generation Global in the period from 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2023.