

Future Generation Global appoints Director Sharon Cook OAM

Future Generation Global (ASX: FGG) today announces that Sharon Cook OAM will join the Company's Board of Directors as an independent Director, effective 10 June 2026.

Mrs Cook brings more than 30 years of legal, governance and executive leadership experience across Australia's corporate and financial services sectors. Most recently, she served as Group Executive, Customer & Corporate Services and Group General Counsel at National Australia Bank (NAB) from 2017 to 2025, where she was a member of the Executive Leadership Team and oversaw legal, governance, regulatory affairs, government affairs, sustainability, customer complaints, remediation and customer hardship functions. Mrs Cook was also a member and later Chair of the NAB Foundation Council.

Prior to joining NAB, Mrs Cook held senior leadership positions within leading Australian law firms, including Managing Partner, Clients at King & Wood Mallesons and Managing Partner at Henry Davis York, where she became the first female managing partner of a top 30 Australian law firm. In 2012, she was recognised as one of the Australian Financial Review's inaugural Women of Influence.

Jennifer Westacott AC, Chair of Future Generation Global said: "Throughout her career, Mrs Cook has built a strong reputation for principled leadership, customer advocacy and corporate governance. During a transformative period for the Australian banking sector, she played a key role in strengthening customer accountability frameworks and regulatory engagement at NAB. Sharon's extensive governance and stakeholder management expertise, together with her commitment to community impact, will be a valuable addition to the Future Generation Global Board."

This announcement has been authorised by the Board of Future Generation Global Limited.

About Future Generation

Future Generation provides shareholders with access to highly diversified investment portfolios that deliver attractive returns and a sustainable stream of fully franked dividends, with lower volatility and concentration risk than the market. Future Generation Australia (ASX: FGX) provides access to Australian equities, while Future Generation Global (ASX: FGG) offers access to global equities.

By partnering with leading Australian and global fund managers who generously waive all management and performance fees, this allows us to donate 1% of net assets each year to Australian not-for-profits supporting vulnerable Australian children, youth mental health and the economic advancement of women – without compromising shareholder returns.

Since inception, the Future Generation companies have donated $100 million to Australian not-for-profit organisations.

Future Generation has also launched Future Generation Women, Australia’s first philanthropic women’s investment fund. As an unlisted trust, Future Generation Women aims to deliver investment returns through a combination of income and capital growth, while making tangible strides towards gender equality in Australia.
