Dr Phil Lowe on Australia's economy, productivity and the Future Generation model

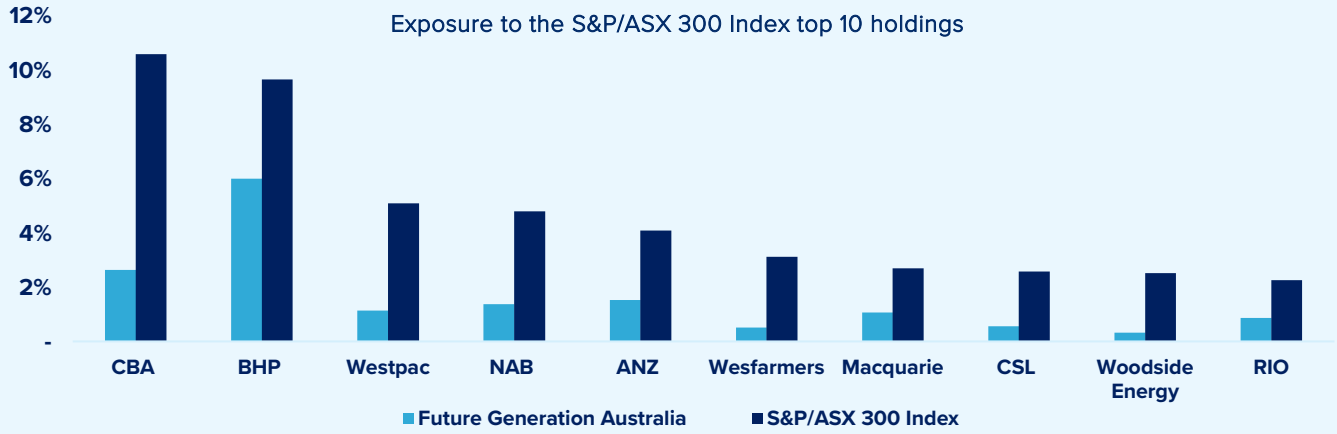

Following the Reserve Bank of Australia's (RBA) fifth consecutive interest rate increase this year, Dr Phil Lowe, Future Generation Australia Chair and former RBA Governor, joined CommSec's Executive Series for a 30-minute interview on the key economic issues facing Australia.

Dr Lowe shares why he joined Future Generation, his first appointment after more than 40 years at the RBA, and how the model delivers financial returns for investors while funding non-profit organisations supporting better outcomes for young Australians. He also discusses Australia's stagnating living standards, housing supply and ways to improve productivity, while reflecting on his experience as RBA Governor during the COVID-19 pandemic.
